

CARROLL READS

- ⇒ A federally-funded literacy tutoring program, modeled after the America Reads national grassroots tutoring program
- ⇒ Builds and refines reading skills for children in elementary grades
- ⇒ Partners include local Cleveland private and public schools
- ⇒ Tutors are paid $8.70/hour for tutoring twice/week, or approximately five hours each week
- ⇒ Tutors must qualify for Federal Work Study to be paid

GET INVOLVED WITH CARROLL READS!

1. Look on Handshake or email carrollreads@jcu.edu to apply each semester, and check Federal Work Study eligibility (required to be paid for service)
2. Meet with Carroll Reads Coordinator for informal interview to determine eligibility and check availability
3. Commit to tutoring two days per week, for ten weeks, over the course of a semester
4. Complete an initial training that includes basic tutoring strategies, early childhood pedagogical best practices, cultural competency, and information on specific populations served
5. Receive continuous training throughout the semester
