CLASSICAL & MODERN LANGUAGES & CULTURES

PROFESSOR:
J. KAROLLE-BERG

GERMAN MINOR —

The German curriculum prepares students to:

- communicate effectively in German,
- understand cultural perspectives, products, and practices of the German-speaking world,
- make connections between developments in German culture and trends in history, politics, and society,
- act with intercultural competence.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS —

German: 18 Credit Hours

- German language courses, beginning at any level
- One approved course in a cognate area (history, political science, philosophy), or up to 3 credit hours of experiential learning may be applied

A Minor in German pairs well with degrees in International Business with Language and Culture, History, Political Science, or Philosophy.

WHY STUDY GERMAN —

- Proficiency in German helps you to function productively for an employer with global business connections. A German minor can prepare you for a career in international business, tourism, or science and research.
- Germany has the largest economy in Europe, and is the fifth largest trade partner with the U.S.
- German is the second most commonly used scientific language. Germany is the third largest contributor to research and development.
- The German and Austrian governments offer multiple opportunities for study, teaching, internships, and research abroad.
- JCU offers an exchange program with TU-Dortmund, and the Boler College of Business has an exchange program with WHU in Koblenz.
