

2022 Orientation Staff Selection

We hope that you will consider “Sharing Your Gifts” and want to have the opportunity to be a role model and a friend to our incoming students. Our Orientation Leaders are a vital part of the Orientation experience.

By working as a Orientation Leader you gain valuable skills and experiences that can help you reach your career goals. As an Orientation Leader, you will:

- Be responsible for leading small group conversations with incoming JCU students
- Serve as a role model, friend, confidant, and resource for a diverse group of students
- Facilitate social and educational activities
- Train in the areas of helping/listening, communication skills, diversity/multicultural awareness, leadership styles, and ethical decision making/problem solving.

It is difficult to tell you exactly what we are looking for in an Orientation Leader. There is not one type of an OL. However, as a whole, Orientation Leaders are people who know themselves and who are concerned for the well-being of others. Overall, we are looking for responsible individuals who are interested in impacting the lives of the incoming class of John Carroll students by creating a community amongst their small group that is fun, respectful, educational, supportive of differences, and safe. We want to hire students who will support and promote the mission, goals, and objectives of the Office of Orientation and John Carroll University.

Please check out the Orientation website at www.jcu.edu/orientation before you complete the application process.
